

SOLD!

He was so impressed, he bought the picture! Mr McNulty takes delivery from 6th -former Dylan W

Earlier this week, Year 13 student Dylan W sold his first painting and Head of Art Mr Morgan was delighted to be there to take the photo above. The buyer, Brian McNulty, a businessman (CEO of FundAdminChain), saw Dylan's artwork in our exhibition at Kingston Station and got in touch. Dylan is understandably delighted with his first sale!

Dylan is expected to do very well in his A level Art this year and go to Art College. Despite completing his course earlier in May, he still continues to come into school to paint, such is his commitment to his practice.

Readers will recall seeing the full range of artwork on display at the station in a previous edition of The Griffin:
